From the Board...

As chairman of KlezKanada and on behalf of the members of the Board, our faculty and artistic staff, I want to wish you a warm welcome to our 15th annual season. I am certain that our exciting and incredibly diverse program will entertain and challenge you. We hope that this festival, like each of the past fourteen years, will remain an unforgettable experience. I am particularly proud of our continuing scholarship and fellowship programs. These programs, unique in the world of Jewish performing arts, represent our sincere hope for the future. We are committed to continuing these efforts and hope that you will join us and encourage others to join this Ashkenazic renaissance, a treasure worthy of your support.

Hy Goldman
Chair of the Board

From the Artistic Coordinator...

A few months ago I wandered around Mile End, Montreal's historic Jewish neighbourhood, looking for inspiration for the poster and the cover of this brochure. In this part of the city, Yiddish is everywhere. In old ways and new ways. Yiddish shows on old stonework, behind the facade of new architecture, and behind the counter at the Greek photocopy shop. My intention with the photographs on the cover was to capture Yiddish found everywhere. I like this, not only because it feels true, but also because Yiddish from everywhere can be found here. This year at KlezKanada, our programming is both incredibly international and very Canadian. While we have faculty joining us from twelve different countries, the theme of our lectures explores Yiddish on Canadian soil, focusing on stories and issues of a Canadian Jewish past. And, for the 15th year, participants from all over the world meet beside a lake in the Quebec mountains for a truly unique Canadian story.

FACULTY

Canadian-Jewish History and Culture

Our featured lecture program this year explores the culture and history of Jews in Canada. Memories and reflections on growing up in Montreal, the landscapes of the Canadian-Jewish imagination, a survey of Canadian-Jewish poetry, and a special Meet the Artists program, are just a small sampling of this rich and varied program.

The Discovery Project — If Not Now, When?

Directed by Hankus Netsky

KlezKanada is delighted to continue a major educational collaboration with the National Yiddish Book Center in Amherst, Massachusetts. The Discovery Project is a grass-roots cultural recovery program that has taken on the challenge of recovering what is left of our immigrant and post-immigrant heritage, mobilizing young people to seek out and document the kinds of Jewish cultural treasures about which they are most passionate. The material that Hankus and our KlezKanada participants will gather will be made available to the public, so that new generations can learn it, learn from it, and use it as the basis for creative projects, curriculum, or delicious meals. Hankus Netsky will present workshops on the material he has been gathering and showcasing at the Book Center and will train participants to gather additional material, both on-site at KlezKanada and in their own communities. Participants will be looking for sources from within our KlezKanada community. Join the “Discovery Project” at KlezKanada, and get ready to Discover!

HIGHLIGHTS

The Other Europeans

KlezKanada hosts the multiple award-winning Other Europeans Project. Supported by a two-year grant from the European Union, The Other Europeans project brings together fourteen leading klezmer (Yiddish) and lautari (Roma) musicians. Created and directed by Alan Bern and inspired by the research of Zev Feldman, this new intercultural supergroup is creating powerful, deeply emotional and virtuosic music that restores a centuries-old cooperation between two groups who cohabited an area of present-day Moldova before being torn apart by war, the Holocaust and immigration. Much has been said about the Jews and the Roma. Now musicians from both worlds have joined, researching and demystifying their connected cultures to create a new heritage, an exciting contribution to a shared new European and cosmopolitan identity.

We are excited to feature The Other Europeans in our programming. Look for the advanced instrumental classes and ensembles taught by members of the project as well as a contextual lecture and a Meet the Artists event hosted by Alan Bern.

KlezKanada brings The Other Europeans to Canada in collaboration with the Ashkenaz Festival and through the generous support of Herschel Segal and David Sela.

THE OTHER

Eight members of The Other Europeans will be joining us for the week at KlezKanada:

Alan Bern Berlin, Germany

The founding director of Yiddish Summer Weimar and Other Music e.V., and leader of Brave Old World and The Other Europeans, Alan Bern is considered one of the finest pianists, accordionists and composers in Jewish music today.

Dan Blacksberg Philadelphia, USA

Trained at New England Conservatory, Daniel Blacksberg plays with many of the field's top artists and is deeply involved in the world of jazz and creative improvised music.

Marin Bunea Chisinau, Moldova

A fifth-generation musician in one of the most powerful musical dynasties of lautari in Moldova, Marin Bunea is the violinist and conductor of the presidential "Doina" orchestra of Chisinau.

Petar Ralchev Plovdiv, Bulgaria

A grand master of Balkan accordion styles, classical accordion virtuoso, and one of the greatest improvisers and innovators in Balkan-influenced jazz in the world today.

Christian Dawid Berlin, Germany

Known as one of today's leading klezmer clarinetists, Christian Dawid performs and teaches extensively throughout Eastern and Western Europe and North America.

Adrian Receanu Paris, France

One of the finest Moldovan clarinetists of his generation, now living in France, Adrian Receanu is building bridges between klezmer and Moldovan clarinet style in The Other Europeans and many other projects.

Adam Stinga Chisinau, Moldova

Considered one of the finest living practitioners of Moldavian and Romanian trumpet styles, Adam Stinga is recognized for his comprehensive knowledge of both traditional and modern styles and repertoires.

Mark Rubin Austin, USA

A lifelong musician, the multi-talented Mark Rubin is reknowned as one of America's most versatile sidemen, adept at a variety of musical styles and traditions.

The Other Europeans Project will be featured in full on September 2, 2010 at The Main, Montreal's Jewish Music Festival.

EUROPEANS

Efim Chorny and Susan Ghergus

The beloved Yiddish folksong duo Efim Chorny and Susan Ghergus returns to KlezKanada. A native of Kishinev, Efim's charismatic presence and exceptional voice have made him known as a great teacher and performer of Yiddish Song. His songs have been sung and recorded around the world. A classical pianist trained at the music conservatory in Kishinev, Susan is also an expert in Jewish song accompaniment. Together, they have performed at festivals across Europe and North America. KlezKanada brings Efim and Susan to Canada in collaboration with the Ashkenaz Festival.

Masqued!

Dress up and dance the night away!

This year KlezKanada will feature a Grand Masque – a night dedicated to dancing! Part concert, part dance ball, and all excitement! Make masks in the visual arts program or bring your own from home. Bring your suits, beautiful dresses, and dancing shoes!

Mask-Making and Masquerading

Calling all revelers to this hands-on workshop in creating fantasy personae! No longer just for Purim, fanciful masks are now acceptable summer attire! Plaster life masks are just the beginning. Feathers, cloth, paint, sequins, buttons, beads and ribbons will give your creation its personal flair. This year we'll reprise many of the mixed media themes of years past into an energizing creative brew. Those that wish can strut their creations at the Saturday night Masque! Take home your mask creation as a beautiful and unique wall piece. Materials provided but also feel free to bring your own materials (from seashells to sheet music) to personalize your work.

The SIXTH Annual LOYF TSUNOYF!

a 5K Loyf (Run) / 2.5K Shpatsir (Walk)

Friday, August 20th, 2010, 7 am

Loyfer-in-Chief: Joanne Borts

For early risers and die-hard stay-up-all-nighters! Klez-Kanada at Dawn! Runners! Walkers! Musicians! Sponsors! Volunteers! We'll meet Friday morning at 6:30 at the Retreat Centre for a little eye-opening coffee and starting at 7:00 AM we'll loyf around KlezKanada!! If you're not into exercise but love the fresh early morning air you can cheer us on!! You and your band can make music around the course to inspire the loyf-ers. The more the merrier! There's something for everyone, and all proceeds go to benefit KlezKanada. Awards in many categories, and swag for participants and generous donors. Keep an eye out for volunteers and register early!

AMI WORKSHOPS CONTINUE (See workshop schedule)

- 9:00-10:30 Filling in the Gaps – Learning from the Discovery Project
Hankus Netsky
A music folio left by a Polish shtetl-based klezmer band comes to life; a Holocaust survivor performs Hasidic nigunim with conservatory students at his synagogue; a KlezKanada guest shares the repertoire of Toronto's 1940s Jewish weddings. You'll hear about all of this and more, as Hankus shares highlights from his first two years of collecting Jewish cultural treasures on behalf of the National Yiddish Book Center and KlezKanada.
- 9:00-10:30 Literary and Cultural Yiddish Montreal
Miriam Isaacs
An exploration of the rich cultural setting that spawned a generation of survivor writers, including Rachel Korn, Yehuda Elberg, and Chava Rosenfarb. The Jewish Library, the Yiddish Theater and a strong infrastructure permitted these writers to give voice to their creativity.

10:15-11:00 Kinderkord

Madeline Solomon

“There was eyn in the bed and the yingele said...”

“Old MacSteingold had a ku, oy oy oy oy oy”

Bring along your baby/toddler to KlezKanada’s first-ever Kinderkord, a singalong for the whole family from baby to bubbe. Counting songs, clapping songs, Yiddish lullabies your bubbe used to sing, old Yiddish favourites, live klezmer jamming, dancing songs in Yiddish and English. Perfect for the Yiddishly-challenged! For children aged 0 to 5 years, and their parents and grandparents.

AM2 WORKSHOPS CONTINUE (See workshop schedule)

10:45-12:15 Discovery Project

Hankus Netsky and Dmitri Slepovitch

Now in its second year at KlezKanada, the Discovery Project is a joint effort between KlezKanada and the National Yiddish Book Center in Amherst, Massachusetts. KlezKanada participants are invited to share their stories, songs, and other cultural treasures with our Discovery Project team in special public collecting sessions. The material we gather will become part of our ongoing efforts to re-infuse Jewish education with material that can inspire new generations to use our immigrant heritage as a point of departure for their own creative work.

10:45-12:15 What is it about Gebirtig?

Adrienne Cooper and Marilyn Lerner

Over the past two decades and continuing, Yiddish singers and composers have mined the work of Mordechai Gebirtig, the poet and songwriter whose work forms an arc from sentimental domesticity through rage at poverty, to furious Holocaust resistance. What is it about Gebirtig that has attracted this exploration and inspired new creativity? Discussion, recorded examples and live performance.

10:45-12:15 Seymour Mayne: Meet the Poet and Writer

Seymour Mayne

Raised and educated in Montreal, Seymour Mayne has been a major figure in the development of Jewish Canadian writing. Join him as he offers selections – and commentary – from his writings, published over the past five decades.

12:30-1:30 Lunch

PM1 WORKSHOPS CONTINUE (See workshop schedule)

DAILY SCHEDULE

2:00-3:30 Cityscapes and Landscapes of the Canadian Jewish ImaginationRichard Menkis*

How did the vast Canadian landscape capture the Jewish imagination? In this talk, we'll look at how various Jews expressed their attachment to both the vast Canadian West and to the rapidly-changing cities in the first decades of the twentieth century. Jewish perceptions of the landscape offer a window onto the aspirations of Jews in a new corner of the diaspora.

2:00-3:30 Bagegenish mit yidishNikolai Borodulin*

A sheyne bobemayse: iberblik fun der yiddisher kinder-literatur fun onheyb biz haynt tsu tog.

PM2 WORKSHOPS CONTINUE (See workshop schedule)3:45-5:15 Great Synagogue Repertoire from the Ashkenazic TraditionStephen Glass*

A whistle-stop tour of some of some remarkable liturgical music, including amazing choral and cantorial compositions, both traditional and more contemporary.

3:45-5:15 The Broder Singers: Forerunners of the Yiddish TheatreMiryem-Khaye Siegel*

Drawing on the traditions of the badkhn, marshelik, lets, and purim-shpiler, Broder singers were the first Yiddish performers to present music and drama in a secular setting in the mid-nineteenth century. Their repertoire included both serious and humorous songs and brief plays. Some later joined with Abraham Goldfaden to establish the first Yiddish theatre. This lecture will explore the Broder singers' history, repertoire, and style, and their relationship to Yiddish theatre.

3:45-5:15 Salon de LantierPete Rushefsky*

Tsimblist Pete Rushefsky curates a special series of intimate afternoon salon concerts that explore the philosophy and practice of Concert Form Klezmer, a new model of composition and performance inspired by western and eastern classical musics as well as Jewish mysticism. The program will showcase Rushefsky's long-time collaborations with clarinetist Joel Rubin and violinist Steven Greenman and provide for interactive discussions with the artists. Demonstration and discussion.

PM3 WORKSHOPS CONTINUE 5:30-6:30 (See workshop schedule)6:30-7:30 Dinner

8:00-8:30 Community Singalong

Sarah Gordon

Lomir zingn a yidish lid! What could be better than sharing Yiddish songs with friends? Together we will sing old favorites and soon-to-be new favorites. All voices welcome, encouraged, and accepted; singers and non-singers join together to make a joyful Yiddish noise.

9:00-10:30 Nusach: What Is It and Why Does It Matter?

Stephen Glass

New Year - apples and honey, Chanukah - latkes, Passover - matzah. Come and learn how to match the music to the time of year, in the same way that we match the foods.

9:00-10:30 Responding to Cinematic Images of St. Urbain Street and the Mountain

Miriam Isaacs

An exploration of the different ways in which film makers have tried to capture immigrant Montreal, including Lies My Father Told Me, The Apprenticeship of Duddy Kravitz, and My Quarrel With Hersh Reyzener. All these are set in the same place but represent very different aspects of Montreal Yiddish life, including how Jews dealt with making a living, coming to terms with their pasts and family dynamics.

9:00-10:30 Ab Cahan and his World

Itzik Gottesman

This year we mark Ab Cahan's 150th birthday (1860-1951). The powerful longtime editor of the Jewish Daily Forward helped shape American Jewish life in New York and the world. These lectures will look at Cahan, his paper, staff and circle and how he influenced radical politics, literature, and the Yiddish press.

10:45-12:15 Changing Environs in Yiddish Folksong: Forest, River, Home and Shul/Train Station, Dancehall, Factory
Adrienne Cooper and Marilyn Lerner
 Yiddish folk songs teeter on the brink of a modernizing, industrializing world, signaled by changing physical settings, the emotional vocabulary of songs, and rhythmic and melodic innovations. An exploration of place, architecture, and technology in Yiddish songs, from anomie to comedy in expressions of the chasm between traditional and modernizing milieux.

10:45-12:15 Poetry Is Not Only for the Professionals
Seymour Mayne
 Join us in a writing workroom. No previous experience necessary but basic English would be helpful. Poetry is like single-malt whiskey: once you get an acquired taste for it, you get to enjoy savouring it on a continual basis. This is an informal workshop introducing participants to try writing...for pleasure and diversion!

12:30-1:30 Lunch

PM1 WORKSHOPS CONTINUE (See workshop schedule)

2:00-3:30 Songs of Thieves, Prisoners and Convicts: Shmuel Lehman's Ganovim-Lider
Fabian Schnedler
 Shmuel Lehman was one of the most prolific collectors of Yiddish folklore in the first half of the 20th century. In 1928 he published Ganovim-lider (Thieves' songs), a collection of songs by thieves, prisoners and convicts. The lecture will give a rough introduction to the collection of 131 texts and 80 melodies: songs of love, lamentation, satire, hubris, self-pity, anger, and conversations with God.

2:00-3:30 Canadian Reactions to the “Nazi Olympics”

Richard Menkis

In late November 1935, only weeks after the Nazis’ Nuremberg laws had definitively revoked the citizenship of German Jews, the Canadian Olympic Committee decided that Canadian athletes should attend the Olympics to be held in 1936 in Germany. Not all Canadians, however, agreed with that decision. In this talk, we will look at the debates among both Jews and non-Jews about whether Canada should attend the “Nazi Olympics.” Among those who had to make the hard decision whether to attend were Jewish athletes, who were torn between the wish to participate after years of hard training and the painful awareness that they did not want to support a regime that was persecuting its Jews and political dissidents.

2:00-3:30 Bagegenish mit yidish

3:45-5:15 Klezmer and all that Jazz! Part One

Peter Sokolow

A three-session series on the similarities and differences between klezmer, the popular dance music of East European Jews, and jazz, the dance-cum-art music of Americans. This historical overview will include recorded and live musical examples.

3:45-5:15 Cryptojewology: Jewish Studies at the Intersection of Normal and Paranormal

Rokhl Kafriksen

These lectures will examine two interconnected questions: how can the field of paranormal studies illuminate that of Jewish studies, and what do Eastern European Jews bring to the study of the paranormal. No prior experience with the extraordinary required.

Part One: The first lecture will be a fun overview of the field of paranormal studies and a brief look at its intersection with Jewish culture.

2:00-3:30 Multiculturalism, Historical Memory and Identity Among Canadian Jews

Richard Menkis

For some, multiculturalism has been a wondrous feat of alchemy, transforming the dross of prejudice into a precious pluralism. For others, it has been fool’s gold, superficially pretty but preserving unhealthy differences. In this talk, we look at how the Canadian Jewish community has reacted to multiculturalism, from the time when it first emerged on the political scene in the mid-1960s, to the present. We will pay close attention to the ways that multiculturalism has affected how Canadian Jews have viewed their past, present and future.

Dmitri Slepovitch

It is no secret that, among the Ashkenazi Jewish sub-ethnic groups, it is the Litvaks’ musical tradition that has been least studied and quite underrepresented in both early 20th century studies and the post-traditional (modern) world. The lecture will focus on reviewing and analyzing the existing sources on Litvish music culture, including the author’s collection. Emphasis will be made on defining the tradition’s unique characteristics.

Open-handed or closed fisted – the debate continues as we once again intensify shabes through the collective power of meditative nigunim (mashke fueled or otherwise) as well as traditional Yiddish and Khasidic song and story – all accompanied by perhaps the most traditional and certainly most ubiquitous of Yiddish musical instruments: the hand-slapped shabes table.

SATURDAY

We try to create a special Shabbes atmosphere at KlezKanada. While you are free to decide on your own behaviour and activities we ask that you respect the Shabbes integrity in the public spaces.

7:30 Nature walk with Itzik Gottesman

8:00 Shabbes Services in the Shul

8:00-9:30 Breakfast

10:00-11:30 Sara Rosenfeld Memorial Lecture

Back Lanes and Park Benches of Yiddish Montreal

Miriam Isaacs

A few Yiddish-speaking families inhabited the working class margins where Yiddish Montreal met the French. This is a personal account of immigrant encounters and of what it was like growing up in a community of Yiddish-speaking Holocaust survivors and their cultural orientation to the English, the French, and other immigrants.

10:00-11:30 Yidish games far der gantser mishpokhe (Yiddish Games for the Whole Family)

with Nikolai Borodulin

Come and shep nakhes (enjoy) watching your kinder and eyniklekh learning a bis! Yiddish while playing games. You can learn some handy Yiddish words and expressions as well! Children and adults will learn and use up to 50 Yiddish words in 50 minutes: numbers from 1 to 12, musical instruments, parts of the body, 10 basic verbs, and more! For all ages and all levels.

12:00-2:00 Lunch

2:00-4:00 Meet the Artists: Yaela Hertz

Yaela Hertz with Deborah Strauss

Master violinist Yaela Hertz is a legendary teacher and performer. As concertmaster of the McGill Chamber Orchestra and as the violinist of the Hertz Trio, she concertized and gave masterclasses around the world, and has been on the faculties of McGill University, Conservatoire de Musique du Quebec, Ecole Vincent D'indy, and the National Youth Orchestra of Canada. Since the first years of KlezKanada, Yaela has taken violinists of all ages and abilities under her expert wing to mentor and guide. We will have a unique opportunity to hear about Yaela's extraordinary artistic life during a "Meet the Artist" session. Through words, photos and music, Yaela will take us on a journey from Russia to Israel and North America. As a link to some of the most important Jewish musical masters of the 20th century, including musicians of Jewish folk and classical music circles in pre-revolutionary Russia and violin virtuoso David Oistrakh, Yaela's life is a fascinating study in modern Jewish music history.

2:00-4:00 Bringing the Klezmer/Yiddish and Shul Worlds Together

Led by Jeff Warschauer and Becky Wexler, with Guest Panelists

For individuals who are active in both the Klezmer/Yiddish cultural sphere and in Jewish religious observance, perplexing questions often arise: why are these worlds so separate? Could bringing them closer together deepen and enliven them both? This panel and group discussion will address these questions and others. Bring your own questions and observations. All are welcome, regardless of background or religious observance.

4:30-6:30 Meet the Artists: The Other Europeans

Led by Alan Bern

The Other Europeans brings together fourteen leading klezmer (Yiddish) and lautari (Roma) musicians. Meet eight of the artists as Alan Bern hosts a discussion with them about their musical and historical backgrounds, and their experiences in The Other Europeans.

7:00-8:00 Dinner

8:00-8:30 Havdole

We'll say goodbye to Shabbes in an intimate setting. Around the tisch, we will talk about the meaning of Havdallah and, led by Sruli Dresdner and the A Nign a Day workshop, sing nigunim that traditionally marked this special time.

2010 WORKSHOP SCHEDULE

Lectures can be found listed in the daily schedule, page 10.

All classes subject to change. Changes will be posted to the notice boards at KlezKanada.

Notes:

- Orientation for Workshop Participants and Scholarship Students

On Monday, August 16, at 8:30 p.m, there will be a meeting for all workshop participants in the Main Rec Hall with Artistic Coordinator Avia Moore and the workshop faculty and fellows. All workshop participants and scholarship students should attend.

- Levels

Each period features classes for all levels. Please respect the levels listed in the title or description of each class. Faculty may recommend alternate classes to participants based on level.

- Attendance

We encourage you to make your workshop choices before KlezKanada or upon arrival and stick to them throughout the week. Try your choices on the first day and, if necessary, transfer on Wednesday. After Wednesday, please do not change classes without permission from the teacher. Most classes build upon what is taught each day and it can be extremely disruptive to have students drop in and out of the class.

- Observing Classes

Many classes are open to observation. When observing classes, please enter quietly and do not interrupt the class while it is in session.

- Individual Coaching

At-large coaching is available throughout the week, pending faculty schedules. To make an appointment, please speak to the individual faculty member. Please note that faculty may not be able to facilitate every request.

- Equipment

Please bring battery-operated recorders and music stands to KlezKanada. Keyboardists and percussionists are requested to bring their own instruments.

Flute

Adrienne Greenbaum

Clarinet: Beginner/Intermediate

Myron Schulz

Clarinet: Intermediate to Advanced

Christian Dawid

Focus will be on playing for dancing – how to lead a dance band and perform standard genres such as freylekhs, shers, bulgars, and zhoks in a rhythmically energetic, yet stylistically distinct way. Room for masterclass situations.

Clarinet: Advanced

Joel Rubin

Focus will be on pieces other than the standard duple-meter dance pieces, such as dobridens, zhoks, terkishers, kale-bazetsns, ahavo rabo improvisations, and how to adapt music from other instruments (violin, flute, etc.) for the clarinet.

Accordion: Beginner/Intermediate

Eduard Kagansky

Accordion: Intermediate/Advanced

Sasha Luminsky

Fidl Half-Speed

Deborah Strauss

Slow down! Ornaments, phrasing and sekund for less advanced string players, or more advanced players who want to dig deeper at a slower pace. Beginners, all levels welcome.

Jake Shulman-Ment

WORKSHOPS

Stempenyu's Dream: Advanced Jewish Violin

Steven Greenman

This advanced class will explore the Jewish and klezmer compositions of violinist Steven Greenman. Melodic string instruments are welcome as well as other interested instrumentalists. A focus will be made on Steven's non-dance Jewish repertoire and its relation to khazones (cantorial music), Jewish prayer and Jewish mysticism/spirituality. Style, phrasing and vocal subtleties will be taught mainly by ear with singing. Musical ideas, interpretations and more will be discussed and shared. Advanced.

Klezmer Trumpet Style: Technique & Ornamentation for the Yiddish Trumpet

Susan Hoffman Watts

Find and develop your klezmer voice through interpretation, using ornaments and phrasing. All Levels

Klezmer Style for Mid and Low Brass

Rachel Lemisch and Dan Blackberg

Technique and style for low and mid brass. The first two days of this class will focus on low brass technique, including warm-ups and melody ornamentation for low brass players. Days three and four will focus on tenor lines and will be open to other instruments in this range (cello, tenor sax, etc). All Levels.

Girls Don't Play Drums!

Elaine Hoffman Watts

Did your parents ever say this to you when you were growing up, after you'd asked for drum lessons? If so, then this class is for you. Drum lessons for all those women who always wanted them! All levels.

Percussion

Aaron Alexander

Moldovan Yiddish Repertoire

Efim Chorny and Susan Gbergus

Back by popular demand, this acclaimed duo brings original and traditional songs from Bessarabia and Ukraine. Learn songs to perform and sing with your family and friends. This morning class will start with Yiddish exercises to warm up the voice. All levels.

Naye yidishe lider

Fabian Schnedler and Miryem-Khaye Seigel

How can we find contemporary ways of interpreting traditional Yiddish songs and developing new ones? In this practical workshop for singers, instrumentalists, and writers, we will explore new approaches to Yiddish song. We will explore and create new Yiddish music, developing our voices within contemporary Yiddish song through writing, translation, composition, arrangement and improvisation. Bring your inspirations and creations (song, text, thoughts, music), and your voices and instruments. All levels.

Newsletter and Internet Workshops

Ari Davidow

The newsletter will continue the KlezKanada tradition of publishing daily in English, Yiddish, and all other languages in which camp participants choose to write. It will focus on articles, drawings, and photos by camp participants, supplemented with reporting by Ari Davidow, the Yiddish teaching faculty and the newspaper volunteer staff. Articles will also appear in the camp blog, (internet connectivity permitting). Volunteers interested in learning about working with InDesign and Photoshop, taught by Ari Davidow, will produce the newsletter each morning after breakfast for delivery by lunch time. If time permits, we will also facilitate uploading of KlezKanada video clips to the blog and YouTube.

Filmmaking

Garry Beitel

This class is open to David A. Stein Filmmaking Scholarship Students, or by permission from the instructor.

David Stein Memorial Filmmaking Scholarships

David Stein was a talented young filmmaker who passed away suddenly in 2004 at age 34. David produced a wide variety of works in his prolific career including documentary features, music videos, short art films, and a variety of corporate and commercial work. His films screened at a number of international film festivals, as well as on Bravo!, History Television, Vision TV, and Star! among others. David was well-known in the Jewish film and music community and, with his ever-present camera in tow, was a ubiquitous presence at many Yiddish culture events, including two stints at KlezKanada in 1998 and '99. In addition to his artistry as a filmmaker, David was known for his vibrant spirit, larger-than-life personality, and unforgettable smile. The David Stein Film Scholarship is an opportunity for emerging filmmakers to explore KlezKanada creatively through the camera's eye. Under the supervision of veteran documentary filmmaker and teacher Garry Beitel, participants hone their documentary skills through workshops and filmmaking projects - using performances and interactions with the leading lights of the Yiddish culture scene and the KlezKanada enthusiasts as their subjects.

The Other Europeans: Balkan and Yiddish Accordion

Petar Ralchev and Alan Bern

In this class we'll compare different Balkan and Yiddish approaches to melody, phrasing, ornamentation, and harmony, using some melodies and genres that are shared among various musics as well as others that are culturally unique. Join grand master accordionist Petar Ralchev and The Other Europeans director Alan Bern for a challenging exploration of the nuances of musical style and accordion technique. While this course is for advanced players only, it is open to all for observation. Advanced.

The Other Europeans:Violin

Marin Bunea assisted by Jake Shulman-Ment

A chance to explore Moldovan and Lautari ornamentation for the violin with a master of these styles, a fifth-generation musician in a musical dynasty of mostly fiddlers. While this course is for advanced players only, it is open to all for observation. Advanced.

The Other Europeans:Trumpet

Adam Stinga

Moldovan and Lautari trumpet style for advanced players with one of the finest practitioners of these styles. Adam is internationally recognized for his comprehensive knowledge of both traditional and modern styles and repertoires. While this course is for advanced players only, it is open to all for observation. Advanced.

Better with a Band!

Lorin Sklamberg, Adrian Banner, and Joanne Borts

An indispensable “How To Play Well With Others” for advanced Musicians: Singers who want the chops to work with killer players, and instrumental ensembles who want to add a voice and keep it real. For experienced vocalists, instrumentalists and potential bandleaders. Participants should bring charts and/or lead sheets for at least five players, and should be able to read music and be familiar with standard Yiddish repertoire. Advanced.

Froyen-lider: Beyond Yidishe Mames

Sarah Mina Gordon

Meydl, Shvester, Tokhter, Vayb un Khaverte... women have been transmitters, innovators and muses for countless Yiddish songs. Together we will explore women’s songs and singing from secular to religious and from traditional to brand-spanking new. All Levels.

Soles on Fire: Heart and Souls

Steve Weintraub

A seriously fun exploration of the core repertoire of dances to klezmer music, with an emphasis on gaining confidence in improvisation. Steps, stylings, and figures of the freylekhs, sher, sirba, and slow hora will be covered, as well as some ballroom dances in preparation for the Grand Masque! All Levels.

Stage on Fire: Developing Contemporary Yiddish Performance Choreography

Avia Moore

A laboratory for the development of contemporary Yiddish dance choreography for performance. We will explore ways in which traditional Yiddish dance can be shaped and transformed. For students with previous dance experience (in any genre). Guaranteed to be unusual and exciting! This year we take on... the patsh tants! Intermediate to advanced.

Yidish far klezmerim

Nikolai Borodulin

An intensive class for beginners, covering such themes as greetings, family, the Jewish wedding, klezmer music, shtetl life, Jewish holidays and more, in an interactive and friendly atmosphere. Join us – you'll be surprised at how much Yiddish you already know!

Advanced Yiddish

Anna Gonsbor

Discovery Project

Hankus Netsky

Now in its second year at KlezKanada, the Discovery Project is a joint effort between KlezKanada and the National Yiddish Book Center in Amherst, Massachusetts. KlezKanada participants are invited to share their stories, songs, and other cultural treasures with our Discovery Project team in special public collecting sessions. The material we gather will become part of our ongoing efforts to re-infuse Jewish education with material that can inspire new generations to use our immigrant heritage as a point of departure for their own creative work.

Mask-Making and Masquerading

Emily Socolov

Calling all revelers to this hands-on workshop in creating fantasy personae! No longer just for Purim, fanciful masks are now acceptable summer attire! Plaster life masks are just the beginning. Feathers, cloth, paint, sequins, buttons, beads, and ribbons will give your creation its personal flair. This year we'll reprise many of the mixed media themes of years past into an energizing creative brew. Those that wish can strut their creations at the Thursday night Masque! Take home your mask creation as a beautiful and unique wall piece. Materials provided but also feel free to bring your own materials (from seashells to sheet music) to personalize your work. A small additional cost will be requested to cover materials. All levels.

Playing Gigs

Elaine Hoffman-Watts, Amy Zakar

So you've been working on klezmer music for quite a while now, and word is getting around in your community that you can play. The time has come (mazltov!) for you to accept those invitations to perform at simkhes and other events. Now, how do you go about making the transition from klezmer enthusiast to semi-pro musician? How do you assemble a band and keep it going on top of everything else in life? How do you overcome stage fright and find joy in playing for others? These and your many other questions will be answered in class – and we'll put together a knockout band of our own! Intermediate.

What the Fish

Myron Schultz

The leader of North End Klezmer Project and FINJAN leads an ensemble exploring the possibilities of some traditional klezmer melodies with the goal of developing a contemporary klezmer creation. All Levels.

Big Brass Band

Frank London

This ensemble will explore Jewish and world carnival traditions. For brass, percussion, and accordions. All levels.

Bessarabian Klezmer Workshop

Edward Kagansky and Hankus Netsky

This popular ensemble will focus on the Bessarabian Klezmer dance repertoire of Moldavian accordionist Edward Kagansky, who performed with klezmer bands in the former Soviet Union through the 1980s. Co-taught with long-time KlezKanada faculty member Hankus Netsky, the workshop is open to intermediate/advanced performers on all instruments. Intermediate.

Lerner/Ralchev Experience: Freeing the Tradition

Marilyn Lerner, Petar Ralchev

We'll look at how to free up traditional tunes with improvisation, opening up structure, challenging norms. If you have some music you want to look at, you are welcome to bring it - either traditional or original - and we'll try to incorporate it into our concert piece. A chance to closely work with legendary Bulgarian accordionist and folk music innovator Petar Ralchev, in a first meeting with Toronto's master improviser/jazz pianist Marilyn Lerner. Advanced.

Fidl Salon

Deborah Strauss

A grassroots, ear-only session for advanced bowed strings, tsimbls and sensitive others. Make music and foster your creativity in a relaxed and democratic fashion. Bring tunes and ideas. Tea and cookies provided. Advanced.

Beregovski Music Ensemble

Joel Rubin, Steven Greenman

Joel Rubin and Steven Greenman lead a workshop focusing on the repertoire from the Moshe Beregovski collections (Ukrainian & Belorussian klezmer collected in pre-World War I Russia and in the Soviet Union from the late 1920s to the late 1930s). We will take Beregovski's published material and learn how to bring the notated sheet music to life, including how to interpret, harmonize, and arrange the melodies. For all instrumental students who can read music but are also used to playing and learning by ear. Melody instruments may need to be able to transpose keys, while rhythm and bass instruments will need to be able to formulate chords, bass-lines and counter-melodies. Emphasis will be on learning; performing is optional. Intermediate to advanced.

The Other Europeans: Woodwinds

Adrian Receanu and Christian Dawid

A crash course in ornamentation for the clarinet, exploring technique and context in a comparative look at Moldovan, Lautari, and Yiddish styles. While this course is for advanced players only, it is open to all for observation. Advanced.

Lautarii din Basarabia

Adam Stinga, Rachel Lemisch

A rare chance to learn directly from one of Moldova's most outstanding instrumentalists. Today's Lautari (Gypsy) music is highly developed, virtuosic concert music based on the folk idiom. Master trumpeter Adam Stinga will provide traditional melodies for a smaller ensemble. We will carefully work on stylistic details and rehearse a well-arranged concert set in the style of the Kishinev school. Assisted by Rachel Lemisch, an acclaimed Montreal-based trombonist with musical ancestry from Moldova. Advanced.

Cantorial Modality & Improvisation for Klezmer Musicians and Yiddish Singers: The Ba'al Tefile

Jeff Warschauer

This unique approach has proven to be a powerful way to develop new improvisational and compositional ideas. For KlezKanada 2010, we will use the modal and motivic building blocks of the Ba'al Tefile (the lay prayer leader) as our point of departure. These basic yet profound patterns are at the heart of Eastern European Jewish prayer style, and offer unique insights and inspiration from which to create improvisations and compositions ranging from the simple to the elaborate. As in previous years, we will also review the modal systems of cantorial and klezmer music. Part theory, but very hands-on, this ensemble is open to instrumentalists and singers, and is designed to move at an advanced pace. No previous knowledge of Hebrew or liturgy necessary. Advanced.

A Nign a Day

Sruli Desdner

From Sruli's extensive repertoire of contemplative and lively Old World Hasidic melodies. This year, we will focus on simpler yet powerful nigunim that are perfect for enhancing your Shabes table, shule experience or dance band repertoire. We will discuss in detail the secrets of turbocharging the nign experience. Although this is a vocal workshop, it is recommended for instrumentalists as well. Class participants will perform and lead nigunim at the Havdole on Saturday evening. All levels.

Ruth Rubin Repertoire

Lorin Sklamberg

Join The Klezmatics' lead singer Lorin Sklamberg for an exploration of a newly-available treasure trove of Yiddish folksongs collected by ethnomusicologist (and Montréal native) Ruth Rubin. Repertoire will be drawn from the recently-published anthology Yiddish Folksongs from the Ruth Rubin Archive (edited by Chana Mlotek and Mark Slobin, published by Wayne State University Press in cooperation with the YIVO Institute for Jewish Research, 2007) and will be illustrated by Ms. Rubin's original field recordings of the material held at the Max and Frieda Weinstein Archives of YIVO Sound Recordings, where by day Lorin serves as Sound Archivist. His work with the collection led to his collaboration with Irish chanteuse Susan McKeown for their Irish-Yiddish program and recording Saints and Tzadiks, featuring many of the songs to be taught in the workshop. Texts in transliteration, translations and musical transcriptions will be provided. All Levels.

Poyk un tants (Drum and Dance)

Aaron Alexander and Steve Weintraub

Creating dance for an audience has certain heightened responsibilities: clarity, physicality, and memory. If you're ready to embrace the challenge, join teacher and choreographer Steve Weintraub and percussionist Aaron Alexander as we create a post-traditional Yiddish dance performance for the 21st century that is innovative but still drinks deeply from tradition. Together we'll explore rhythms both heard and seen. Dancers should be prepared to be very physical: to shake, stomp, twist, bend, stretch and sweat. Drummers and other instrumentalists who are interested in movement and rhythm are encouraged to join. All levels.

Yiddish for Beginners

Yuri Vedenyapin

By popular demand, we are pleased to offer an additional Introduction to Yiddish class. Learn Yiddish in a dynamic and fun environment with Harvard Yiddish teacher Yuri Vedenyapin.

Beginner's Ensemble

Jake Schulman-Ment

Are you proficient on your instrument but inexperienced with klezmer? Does playing music by ear sound intimidating? Do you need help improving your skills as a chordal accompanist? If so, don't worry – this ensemble is for you! We will work on your ability to learn by ear and improvise in a Jewish style, to understand the various klezmer genres, and to find your role in a klezmer band. Beginner.

Masterclasses for Mid-Level Instrumentalists

Adrienne Greenbaum

Adrienne Greenbaum – long-time professor at the college level – will coach all instrumentalists on their tunes. Communicate your musical intentions: what is important in a klezmer tune? Is the ornamentation compatible with the melody? Is the tempo optimum for your tune? Plus, anything and everything else that comes from an open and friendly forum. Sign up for the class and sign up for a daily spot. Something new every day. Intermediate.

Giant Ear Band

Michael Winograd

Come one, come all – or rather ... come all (!) to Michael Winograd's Giant Ear Band. Open to all musicians, on all instruments! Learn klezmer tunes, new and old, by ear each day, the way they were meant to be learned! Continuing in the tradition of Michael Winograd's popular Ear Band at KlezKamp, the objective of this ensemble is for musicians to gather in large numbers and play really fun dance tunes. But beware, the fun level of this ensemble will most likely exceed your wildest expectations. So for those who don't like fun, and don't like klezmer music, this ensemble is not for you! All Levels.

Modern Hasidic Wedding Band

Jason Rosenblatt, Avi Fox-Rosen

Get down and dirty with the music of Ben David, Fried, Gabay et al. This class will focus on performing the greatest Hasidic hits of last twenty years. In addition, we will study some approaches to de-cheesifying these classics. Intermediate to advanced.

Hoffman Family Repertoire

Susan Hoffman Watts

A class exploring some of the Hoffman family repertoire using the music written in the family book in 1927 by Joseph Hoffman. We will play oldies and originals, explore some well-known pieces, and make some beautiful new discoveries. Mixed levels, sight-reading required.

Salon de Lantier

Pete Rushefsky

Tsimblist Pete Rushefsky curates a special series of intimate afternoon salon concerts that explore the philosophy and practice of Concert Form Klezmer, a new model of composition and performance inspired by western and eastern classical musics as well as Jewish mysticism. The program will showcase Rushefsky's longtime collaborations with clarinetist Joel Rubin and violinist Steven Greenman, and provide for interactive discussions with the artists. Demonstration and discussion.

KlezKanada Moldavian/Yiddish Orchestra

Marin Bunea, Alan Bern, Adrian Receanu

The Other Europeans violinist Marin Bunea is not only a 5th-generation lautar, he's also the conductor of the Presidential Folk Orchestra of the Republic of Moldova. This summer he'll bring to KlezKanada a treasure of Moldavian music arranged for large orchestra. Imagine the sound of Abe Schwartz's orchestra turbocharged for the year 2010! Assisted by The Other Europeans director, Alan Bern, Marin will introduce an incredibly joyful, rocking, romantic repertoire and along the way, explore essential differences between Moldavian Yiddish and non-Yiddish style. This ensemble is for technically advanced musicians who can read music very well. Advanced.

D.I.Y. New Jewish Music

Frank London

This class will focus on composing new klezmer instrumental and vocal nigunim. We will also explore arranging, harmonizing, and expanding the tunes that we write over the course of the week. Intermediate to advanced.

Yiddish Song Masterclass

Adrienne Cooper and Marilyn Lerner

This masterclass is an opportunity to bring your performance of a Yiddish song to its full expressive and artistic potential. Our deepest experience of the meaning, emotional content, vocal possibility and pure joy of a song often comes in the period when we learn and prepare it for performance. In this workshop, auditors are invited to witness this process, but most importantly it is a singer's and accompanist's laboratory for exploration, experimentation, and adventure. Intermediate to advanced.

Di shereray/Barbershop Yiddish Close Harmony

Josh Dolgin

Experience the spine-tingling thrill of singing Yiddish music in rich, glorious 4-part harmony. Working from Golden-Age American klezmer era arrangements from Oscar Julius, Avraham Saltes and others, this workshop will look at nigunim and Yiddish folk songs arranged for mixed chorus. All Levels.

Melodic Phrasing and Ornamentation

Peter Sokolow

A workshop for intermediate and advanced players of melody instruments such as clarinet, violin, saxophone and trumpet, in the style of the classic clarinetists Dave Tarras, Max Epstein and Naftule Brandwein. Intermediate

Slow Jam

Adrian Banner and Amy Zakar

Chops aching from all those fast tunes? Brain hurting from working on all those vivace bulgars? Fingers falling off from bowing and picking furiously? Let's slow down and relax! Come to the Slow Jam to play and learn klezmer tunes at a more manageable pace. Both music-readers and ear-learners will feel right at home. Beginners, all levels welcome.

The KlezKanada 2010 Kabbolas Shabbos Band

Jeff Warschauer, Becky Wexler and Sam Young

For singers and instrumentalists. A brand new project! We'll meet all week, as an ensemble, to learn special vocal and instrumental nigunim and synagogue melodies for welcoming the Sabbath Bride. On Friday evening we'll fill the Egalitarian service with our singing and playing. As sundown approaches, we'll put our instruments away, but the singing will go on. A wonderful musical experience for all, and open to everyone. No previous, current or future religious affiliation necessary or expected. All levels.

Tea Dance (Tey-tants)

Coordinated by Steve Weintraub and Pete Rushefsky

A fun and informal way to get in some more dancing in the afternoon, and review the dances learned during the week. A fine way to practice for the Masque! Also an opportunity for advanced musicians to gain more experience playing for dance. All Levels.

AFTER DINNER
8-8:30

Community Singalong

Sarah Mina Gordon and Yuri Vedenyapin

Lomir zingn a yidish lid! What could be better than sharing Yiddish songs with friends? Together we will sing old favorites and soon-to-be new favorites. All voices welcome, encouraged, and accepted; singers and non-singers join together to make a joyful Yiddish noise.

All levels.
