FROM THE ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

It feels fitting that, with a focus on Poland at KlezKanada 2015, I am writing this in Krakow, Poland, during their Festival of Jewish Culture. Michael Winograd, Deborah Strauss, The Klezmatics, Agi Legutko, Jeff Warschauer, and many other members of our faculty are all here with me. 1,000 years of Jewish Polish history – an entire museum was just built to try to tell the story (spearheaded by KlezKanada alumna Barbara Kirshenblatt-Gimblett). What is happening today in Poland is endlessly fascinating, as Polish Yiddish culture and history is being both explored and re-invented. In this, the 100th anniversary of his passing, we will look especially at the work and legacy of the giant of Polish-Yiddish culture, Y.L. Peretz. Peretz understood the power of art to connect past, present, and future.

On another note, over the past year, and with increasing frequency in the last months, I have received messages from Hy Goldman, founder of and driving force behind KlezKanada. They were consistent. “I’d like to dedicate the Shabbes Shtiler ovnt to Peysekh Fiszman.” “We must do a concert to honour Yaela Hertz.” “Theodore Bikel has helped us in so many ways: let’s name scholarships for him.” We currently have a Sara Rosenfeld Lectureship and the annual Adrienne Cooper Scholar. Hy’s appreciation of the contributions of others in our community is powerful and visceral. His response is to name names, in a good way, giving them koved, respect, and honour.

In this spirit, I want to publicly, personally, and collectively, acknowledge, honour, respect, and ‘give face’ (an expression from Hong Kong gangster movies that feels remarkably similar to the Yiddish “mekabl ponim zayn”) to everyone in our KlezKanada extended community. Here’s to all the dreamers and workers in Yiddish who have done so much to enrich our community and our lives.

In particular, I would like to name our current and past faculty members who have been given incredible honours this year:

Michael Alpert, 2015 NEA National Heritage Fellow,
Susan Hoffman Lankin-Watts, 2015 Pew Fellowship in the Arts,
Jenny Romaine, JFREJ’s 2015 Rabbi Marshall T. Mayer Risk-Taker Award
Michael Wex, 2015 Adrienne Cooper Dreaming in Yiddish Award

And, last but not least, to a group of people in Montreal and beyond who have a dream about how Yiddish culture, language, and music can be presented. They have the will and drive to realize that dream and have sustained it for over twenty years. Thank you to all the members of the Board of KlezKanada, to our donors, to every member of our faculty over the years, to Hy and Sandy Goldman, to indefatigable workers Robin Mader, Bob Blacksberg, and Dan Goldstein, coordinators Joanne Borts, Christian Dawid, and Rokhl Kafriessen, and to the people who shaped KlezKanada: Michael Alpert, Alan Bern, Zev Feldman, Avia Moore, Hankus Netsky and Jeff Warschauer. Without all of you, organizing and sustaining KlezKanada would be impossible. And to every one of you at KlezKanada – and everyone who has ever attended – you are our extended family and we thank you for all you do to keep this dream alive.

Frank London, Summer 2015

FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Welcome to the 20th KlezKanada Laurentian Retreat. A packed house, more than 450 of us, will overflow this week in music, song, dance, theatre, visual arts, Yiddish, study, and prayer. We bring experience and mastery, wonder, discovery, expression, and invention to our annual sanctuary, celebration, incubator and renewal of Yiddish and Jewish arts and culture. We gather from across Canada, North America, and the world. We encounter each other across four generations, transmitting our inheritance from our ancestors, transforming it and welcoming the enormous skill and energy of our youth. In a week, when we must leave, our souls will be filled with a spirit we burst to share with family, friends, new audiences. All this is KlezKanada.

We celebrate our heritage, the 1,000 year history of Jewish life in Poland, its flowering before near extinction, and today’s rebirth. We honor and treasure the memory of Theodore Bikel, whose life and work, a treasure of art and conviction, so much inspires the artistic, cultural and social leaders among us. We embrace 75 scholarship students, whose special talents can join those of more than 600 who have preceded them, engaging with and committing to Yiddish and Jewish arts and culture.

We can never thank Hy and Sandy Goldman enough for their vision, complete commitment and catalyst for support that created, nurtured and sustained KlezKanada. Now we are ready to move forward to a new level of leadership and engagement. An executive director will lead a team so ably served by a corps of volunteers, by Frank London as artistic director, together with the generous work of all of the coordinators, faculty, fellows, and staff. As we grow and evolve, we look forward to your continuing and increasing presence and support, personal, communal, spiritual, and financial.

May we connect each year and throughout the year, from year to year, from generation to generation, making Yiddish and Jewish art and culture a thriving part of Jewish and world life.

Summer 2015
Y.L. PERETZ PROGRAMMING

On this, the 100th anniversary of his passing, we honor the great Yitskhok Leybush Peretz – writer, scholar, sage – by presenting an in-depth look at his life and works. Sol Liptzin called him “the great awakener of Yiddish-speaking Jewry” who “aroused in his readers the will for self-emancipation, the will for resistance...”

Y.L. Peretz and the Jewish Woman with Anna Gonshor
Tuesday-Friday, AM2 – RC Multipurpose Room

Y.L. Peretz, Father of Modern Yiddish Culture with Michael Steinlauf
Tuesday-Thursday, PM1 – RC Dining Room

Yitskhok Leybush Peretz, “A Man for all Seasons” (IN YIDDISH) with Anna Gonshor
Tuesday-Friday, PM1 – RC Synagogue

Y.L. Peretz and Friends with Janie Respitz
Wednesday, PM2 – RC Multipurpose Room

Monish: Reading a Forgotten Yiddish Classic with Shane Baker
Saturday, 2:30-4:00 PM – RC Lounge

DANCE LEADER’S PROGRAM

For the first time, KlezKanada is offering a Jewish Dance Leaders Program. This intensive will train experienced dancers to teach basic dances and to lead Yiddish dancing at all occasions – from community dances to simkhes. There will be practical classes on leading the repertoire, theory and lectures on Jewish dance history and culture, and insider tips from our dance faculty, featuring international dance leaders Avia Moore and Steve Weintraub. By teaching teachers, we become part of di goldene keyt (the golden chain), helping to perpetuate our dance tradition.

THE 11TH ANNUAL LOYF TSUNOYF

5K Loyf (Run)/2.5K Shpatsir (Walk) on Friday at 7 AM

For early risers and die-hard stay-up-all-nighters! A fundraiser for KlezKanada with an emphasis on the FUN! KlezKanada at Dawn! Runners! Walkers! Musicians! Sponsors! Volunteers! We’ll meet at the Retreat Centre for a little eye-opening coffee and then we Loyf around Camp! If you’re not into exercise (but love the fresh morning air...), then your band can make music around the course to inspire the Loyf-ers! The more the merrier! There’s something for everyone, and all proceeds go to benefit KlezKanada! Awards in many categories, and swag for participants and generous donors! Keep an eye out for Joanne Borts and her merry band of volunteers and register early!

REMEMBERING THEODORE BIKEL, Z”L

Theodore Bikel’s work and life continues to inspire all of us. We anticipated his coming to KlezKanada, certain that his indomitable nature would overcome his physical obstacles. His spirit is present among us, as our work continues and sustains the commitment to Yiddishkayt that was so much a part of him. Just 2 months ago, he spoke about “what I cherish—Jewish culture, Yiddish language, Yiddish folklore—things which in a world of vanishing cultures have become the most precious remnant that I can name for myself.”

KlezKanada had a special place in his heart.

“A place of learning, a place of teaching, a place of listening, of playing, of giving and receiving – that is what KlezKanada has come to mean to me.

More important, it is a place of Yiddish song, poetry and humor and a place of unforced Yiddishkayt.

KlezKanada may be only one week out of the year but one takes away from it a sense of belonging, a sense of family with a song that lasts through winter and spring.”

Theodore Bikel

“KlezKanada’s creation was an attempt to rediscover and perpetuate the incredible richness of the Jewish/Yiddish world. Throughout his life and career Theodore Bikel reflected this same preoccupation with exceptional success. We valued his presence and inspiration at KlezKanada and we are greatly saddened by his passing. He will remain forever in our hearts and minds and his life’s work will encourage us all to continue our quest for a more vital Jewish/Yiddish world.”

Dr. Hy Goldman, KlezKanada founder

Over the last few years, Theodore closed all his concerts with Phil Ochs’s song, “When I’m Gone”.

All my days won’t be dances of delight when I’m gone
And the sands will be shifting from my sight when I’m gone
Can’t add my name into the fight while I’m gone
So I guess I’ll have to do it while I’m here

His name will always be a blessing as well as a provocation, calling on us to do the most that we can with the time we have. May all who loved him and worked with him find comfort in the uncountable rich treasure that he left us with his work, and in the memories we share.
KLEZKANADA POETRY RETREAT
THREE MILLENNIA OF POETIC SUBVERSION

Led by Adeena Karasick and Hank Lazer
Poetry Retreat sessions run from 9:00 AM to 12 Noon in the Photo Room.

KlezKanada Poetry Retreat is back for the 4th year! And this year, we are thrilled to announce that Hank Lazer will be joining Adeena Karasick, and together, they will host 4 days of lectures, discussions, master classes on writing and performance.

The theme for KlezKanada 2015 is Di tsukunft, with a focus on Poland and on Y.L. Peretz. Di Tsukunft (Yiddish for the future) historically was the name of both the Youth wing of the Bund (formally called “Yugnt-bund Tsukunft in poyln” – “Youth Bund the Future in Poland”) and the world’s oldest Yiddish literary journal. This year’s Poetry Retreat will celebrate KlezKanada’s 20th year by simultaneously looking ahead and at the past thinking through the “chrono-logi of the contretemps” focusing on Jerome Rothenberg’s Poland 1931, Czeslaw Milosz, Russian Futurism, writing through the photographs of 1937, through improvisation, litanies and intentions, and how language shapes meaning, on the stage and through the page. Emphasizing the interdisciplinarity of poetry and encouraging its ongoing relationship to Music, Culture, Visual Art, Theatre, Dance, and New Media, in the afternoon, poets are invited to attend any of the other courses offered – music, dance, lectures, and Yiddish language classes.

Throughout the week, participants will have the opportunity to engage in both a solo and multi-vocal performance and create a chapbook of their work, culminating in publication in the Forward.

Tuesday – Poetry And Place: Poland
Wednesday – Incantations, Meditations, And Litanies
Thursday – Past Present And Future
Friday – Improvisation And Moving Beyond Intention

The KlezKanada Poetry Retreat is supported by the Jewish Book Council, Tablet, Jewish Currents, The Writers Union of Canada and the League of Canadian Poets.

MCGILL/KLEZKANADA ACADEMIC SEMINAR

We are thrilled, once again, to host the McGill/KlezKanada Academic Seminar. Taught by veteran KlezKanada faculty member Hankus Netsky with help from Shayn Smulyan, the course is available for 3 credits to McGill University students or students from various Canadian universities who are cross-registered through McGill’s Department of Jewish Studies. Students will be on-site at KlezKanada throughout the week participating in classes and lectures. They will also prepare final projects, which they will present in class meetings during PM3 on Friday and in a final class meeting on Sunday morning from 9-12. These might include performance projects in Eastern European Jewish music, traditional research projects, or ethnographic fieldwork projects involving original research in Jewish music that focuses on family members, local Jewish musicians, or KlezKanada staff or attendees. Meetings of the McGill Academic Seminar will take place in RC Conference Room 4 (AM1) and Yarkon Rec Hall (AM2, PM1, PM2, PM3).

LECTURES OF THE MCGILL ACADEMIC SEMINAR – ALL ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND:

Tuesday:
AM2 An Overview of Jewish Music in Eastern Europe
PM 2 The Klezmer Tradition in Europe and America
PM 3 Fieldwork and Ethnography Workshop (Discussion of Fieldwork and Research Projects)

Wednesday:
AM 2 The Music of the Khasidim
PM 1 The Music of the Yiddish Theatre
PM 3 Class Interview with Herschel Fox

Thursday AM 1 An Introduction to Yiddish Folksong
PM 1 The Music of the Yiddish Theatre
PM 3 Class Interview with Herschel Fox

Friday AM 1 An Introduction to Jewish Art Music
AM 2 The Contemporary Resurgence of Eastern European Musical Traditions
PM 3 Academic Seminar Student Project Presentations

Sunday 9 AM More Academic Seminar Student Project Presentations

This seminar was planned in coordination with McGill University and former Jewish studies chair Dr. Eric Caplan. KlezKanada would like to thank the Department of Jewish Studies at McGill University and their generous supporters for making this program possible.

KLEZKINDER!

Sruli Dresdner and Lisa Mayer have run KlezKanada’s KlezKinder program for almost 20 years and it is one of the happiest places to be a kid! They have created a true KlezKanada family; many of the young participants refer to KlezKanada as the “best week of the year.” We have more going on than EVER BEFORE!!

This year we are grouping the KlezKinder into three age groups: 0-3 “KinderKord”, 3-5 “The KlezKetseles” and 6-8 “The KlezKuntslers.” Both older groups break for lunch. Parents are required to pick up their child/ren at the flagpole before lunch. There is no supervision again until PM1 so parents must be responsible for their children until then. This year families with children will be assigned to eat together in the smaller dining room. The KlezKinder program officially ends each day at the end of PM2. Please meet your child promptly at the retreat center. Parents who would like babysitting should call the office to arrange for one of the very reliable and cheerful sitters.

IMPORTANT: Please note: there is a mandatory meeting for all parents of KlezKinder at 8:30 AM on Tuesday, August 18th at the flagpole. Camp B’nai Brith requires that all children under the age of 12 must be accompanied by a parent in order to be allowed to swim in the pool or the lake. In the event that a child is not accompanied by a parent, he/she will be restricted to the beach or the dock areas.

KINDERKORD – AGES INFANT TO 3

AM2 – Music and Yiddish singing, dancing, eopercussion and puppetry with the fabulous early education specialist and musician Madeline Solomon. On the lawn in front of the infirmary.

KLEZKETSELES – AGES 3-5

AM1 – We begin the day with Yiddish Yoga! Then we decamp for our KlezKinder Studio – to work on a grand Yiddish Art Project with Artist Ilana Dresdner.

AM2 – Music instruction for ALL KlezKinder at the KlezKinder Studio. Young instrumentalists of all levels band together to learn a new/old melody from the Yiddish repertoire. All children may bring an instrument – even if they are beginners or pre-beginners. One of the highlights of our program is our daily performance at the flagpole before lunch! We start the nakhes early!

LUNCH – Parents are required to pick up their child/ren at the flagpole before lunch.

PM1 – Nu Nu? There will be a special presentation or workshop with one of our brilliant faculty members, an unusual art project, a nature walk or (later in the week) more preparation for Saturday Night’s concert. We ALWAYS end up by the lake for one of Lisa’s Legendary Stories, so please have your children in bathing suits or with bathing suits and towels. A special KlezKinder SNACK accompanies the story!

PM2 – SWIM! The magnificent lake is open for swimming, boating and hanging. The beautiful pool is open for anything! Enjoy every mekhayadik minute!

KLEZKUNSTLERS – AGES 6-8

AM1
Choice Alef: GoLEYM making (working with clay) in the ceramics studio. Will the Kunstlers recreate the infamous Golem of Prague?

Choice Beys: Jewish Art in the Studio at the Retreat Center with folklorist and artist extraordinaire Emily Socolov

Choice Gimel: Creating a Yiddish Fairy Tale with Music with Sruli and Lisa (in the KlezKinder Studio)

AM2 – Music instruction for ALL KlezKinder at the KlezKinder Studio (see description in KlezKetzeles)

LUNCH – Parents are required to pick up their child/ren at the flagpole before lunch.

PM1
Choice Alef: Nu Nu? There will be a special presentation or workshop with one of our brilliant faculty members, an unusual art project, a nature walk or (later in the week) more preparation for Saturday Night’s concert. We ALWAYS end up by the lake for one of Lisa’s Legendary Stories, so please have your children in bathing suits or with bathing suits and towels. A special KlezKinder SNACK accompanies the story!

Choice Gimel: Puppetry Workshop with Maya and Uri, puppeteers extraordinaire. Create your own version of the classic tale “Stone Soup.” Maybe—Borscht?

PM2
Choice Alef: POOL (with a parent) with Sruli and Lisa

Choice Beys: Puppetry workshop continues

Some parents wish their children to have more intensive instruction on their instruments, particularly during AM 1. Those parents are encouraged to send their children to the Beginner’s Ensemble or any other level-appropriate workshops. Older children may also want to consider attending the Yiddish dance or theatre classes. Parents who wish their children to have a more intensive Yiddish language experience should contact Sruli and Lisa to arrange for private or small group instruction.

TEENAGERS IN LVOV

Led by Zachary Mayer
Rehearsals at 1PM (during lunch) in the Main Rec Hall.
Age 12 and over.

Do you want to revolutionize the Klez Kommmunity? Do you want to be a part of the baddest thing since Josh Dolgin? In Teenagers in Lvov, you will finally get to combine and perform your two favourite genres of music: hip-hop and klezmer! All youthful musicians are welcome. Are you a klezzical violinist? No problem. A rapper? Arguably better! Someone who likes to eat? Too bad! We rehearse during lunch!

AND, NEW THIS YEAR, KLEZKAPPELLA

A CAPELLA YIDDISH FUSION

Led by Aaron Mayer
Rehearsals at 5:30 PM at the Flagpole. Age 12 and over.

Are you, or do you aspire to be, Pitch Perfect? Can u bend notes in D minor? Do you obsess over the Pentatonix? The teen KlezKapella is the newest old-school coolest hottest harmonic thing to hit KlezKanada. Ask leader Aaron “A Capella” Mayer. He’s easy to find. Just look up!

10:45-12:15  AM2 – Week-long Workshops Continue (see workshop listings)

10:45-12:15  Death: Gateway to the Future with Michael Wex

9-10:30  Kraków, the "Polish Jerusalem," for over seven hundred years Kraków boasted a vibrant Jewish community that produced such world famous rabbis as the Ramah (Moses Isserles), Bach (Joel Sirkes), Abraham Joshua Heshel, and Megale Amukot (Natan Nata Spira); such famous artists as Mordechai Gebirtig, Jonas Turkow, Maurycy Gottlieb, Michal Weichert, Miriam Akavia, Natan Gross; and the queen of cosmetics, Helena Rubinstein. Seventy years after the Holocaust, Kraków is now undergoing an unprecedented revival of Jewish life. This four-lecture series will address the following questions: What was the Jewish Kraków then? What is going on there now? The Jewish revival without Jews? With Jews? What is in the future? Come and hear stories about the most fascinating place in Jewish Poland of today – Kraków!

9-10:30  What was the Jewish Kraków then? What is going on there now? The Jewish revival without Jews? With Jews? What is in the future?

9-10:30  The centrality of the mandolin in Jewish musical life has long been overlooked. Mandolin clubs, schools, and orchestras once proliferated across Jewish Eastern Europe and in North American immigrant communities. As a ‘social’ instrument that brought people together for recreational music-making, the mandolin was simply unrivaled. Eric Stein will illuminate this little-known but quintessential Jewish musical phenomenon, sharing rare historical photographs and recordings and discussing his involvement in the Ger Mandolin Orchestra, a unique international “supergroup” that pays homage to the pre-war Jewish mandolin orchestra of Gora Kalwaria (Ger in Yiddish), Poland.

9-10:30  German Jews generally had a negative stereotypic image of their Eastern European brethren. This negative image was modified to a certain extent by German government policy on the Eastern front and by the German Jewish soldiers’ confrontation with the reality of Jewish life in Eastern Europe.

9-10:30  This class will teach Yiddish language and cultural history by examining language, grammar, syntax, and dialects in Yiddish song. For beginner to intermediate Yiddish students.

9-10:30  We will look at Yiddish ideas of death and dying in an attempt to see how these have coloured the Yiddish view of the world. No personal experience of either Yiddish or death required.
10:45-12:15 Y.L. Peretz and the Jewish Woman with Anna Gonshor
RC Multipurpose Room
Part 1 of a 4 part series. Come once or hear them all!
Peretz's great concern for Jewish civil rights expressed itself in a demand for social justice and human dignity within the Jewish world as well. The plight of the Jewish woman, as daughter, wife, and mother represented much of what was wrong in Jewish society. We will read and discuss a selection of his works dealing with this particular problem and discover an early advocate for women's rights.

10:45-12:15 Yiddish for klezmorim with Nikolai Borodulin
Bunin Rec Hall
For those who know gornisht or a bisl Yiddish and want to learn much more, including such hot topics as our roots, words and phrases for everyday life, Yiddish and Internet, secret vocabulary of klezmorim, Sholem Aleichem, Y.L. Peretz and klezmer, spiritual resistance in the ghettos and much more. You’ll be amazed how much Yiddish you know and understand already! For beginner Yiddish students.

10:45-12:15 Intermediate-Advanced Yiddish: Aspects of Warsaw Jewish Life Through Song with Janie Respitz
RC Synagogue
Together we will explore the diversity of Yiddish Warsaw. We will sing, explain, and discuss songs of the early Maskilim, Zionists, Misnagdim, and Bundists, reflecting a rich cultural history of Warsaw Jewry. For intermediate to advanced students of Yiddish.

10:45-12:15 McGill Academic Seminar
Yarhon Rec Hall
An Overview of Jewish Music in Eastern Europe

10:45-12:15 Visual Arts: Tinsel Painting – Introduction with Emily Socolov and Tine Kindermann
RC Arts Room
Tinsel Painting was a popular art form in the late 19th Century, a reverse glass painting technique where the negative space is blacked out and a glittering background radiates through the clear, tinted spaces. This was an inexpensive means of creating signs, setting off cherished documents (like photos, mizrachs or ketubahs) or producing decorative wall art and jewelry. We will experiment with transferring images onto glass or sturdy plastic sheets and creating unique framed objects. We’ll also make smaller, wearable items from glass gems.

12:30 Lunch in the Dining Hall

2-3:30 PM1 – Week-long Workshops Continue (see workshop listings)

2-3:30 Y.L. Peretz, Father of Modern Yiddish Culture with Michael Steinlauf
RC Dining Room
Part 1 of a 3 part series. Come once or hear them all!
Part 1: Introducing Peretz: His Life, Writings and Influence

2-3:30 Freud and Jewishness with Marilyn Lerner
RC Multipurpose Room
This lecture will explore the life of Sigmund Freud from the point of view of his relationship with Judaism, including how it may be said to have impacted his theories of psychoanalysis, the impact of anti-Semitism on his career, and the effect that war and the rise of Nazi Germany had on his thinking, including his famous correspondence with Albert Einstein.

2-3:30 Poland: The New Jewish Frontier with Ellie Shapiro
RC Conference Room 3
Part 1 of a 4 part series. Come once or hear them all!
Part 1: History of Jewish Music in Poland
Poland’s return to democracy has opened new possibilities regarding the country’s Jewish heritage. In this lecture series Ellie will explore Polish-Jewish history focusing on music and Jewish cultural initiatives currently taking place in small towns.

2-3:30 Advanced Yiddish: Yitskhok Leybush Peretz, “A Man for all Seasons” with Anna Gonshor
RC Synagogue
Y.L. Peretz was one of the most important figures in the development of modern Yiddish culture. His role in modern Yiddish literature, theatre, journalism, and modern Jewish politics placed him at the centre of Jewish life in Eastern Europe and abroad. As a modernist he experimented with various literary styles. A reading of a variety of his works will provide a small insight into the breadth of his work, his popularity, and its relevance for our time. For advanced Yiddish students.

2-3:30 Visual Arts: Tinsel Painting – Open Studio in the RC Arts Room

3:45-5:15 PM2 – Week-long Workshops Continue (see workshop listings)

3:45-5:15 Klezmer in the Goldene Medina with Pete Sokolow
RC Multipurpose Room
This talk will explore the development of klezmer music in the New World from 1920 to 1960, focusing on recordings made by the most significant performers, including immigrants (Brandwein, Taras, Shloime Beckerman) and first generation Americans (Sam and Ray Musiker, Max Epstein, Paul Pincus, Danny Rubinstein, Howie Leess, Marty Levitt, Sid Beckerman, Rudy Tepel). The discussion will include the influence of American dance music and jazz and the assimilation into American society of the children of the immigrant generation.
Oylem Ha-Bo: the Real Future with Michael Wex
Part 1 of a 4 part series. Come once or hear them all!
An examination of the role of messianism, eschatology, and the conditions of day-to-day life after the resurrection of the dead in Yiddish. No knowledge of Yiddish or personal experience of salvation required.

Bagegenish with Yiddish
Discussions in Yiddish led by Nikolai Borodulin
An exciting opportunity to hear mame-loshn. The bagegenish sessions feature discussions in Yiddish with distinguished artists and teachers, as well as informal presentations of their work. In Yiddish.

AFTERNOON CONCERT SERIES
Lisa Gutkin Trio
The Klezmatics’ violinist unveils her new group, featuring accordionist Uri Sharlin and tsimbl player Pete Rushefsky.

Herschel Fox “The World of Jewish Music and Comedy”
We are proud to welcome Herschel Fox to KlezKanada, a legend in the world of Yiddish theater – he shared the stage with Molly Picon and others – and then had a distinguished career as a khazn. Cantor Fox will present a rich mix of Jewish song sprinkled with Jewish humour that travels through the cultural life of generations.

Tea Dance (Tey-tants)
A fun and informal way to get in some more dancing in the afternoon, and review the dances learned during the week. A fine way to practice for the Invitation to the Ball on Thursday night! Also an opportunity for advanced musicians to gain more experience playing for dance.

From Russian Revolutionary to Builder of the Jewish State: Pinchas Rutenberg and Zionism in 1915 with Eugene Orenstein
Pinchas Rutenberg (1879-1942) had been an active member of the Socialist Revolutionary Party (SR) in Czarist Russia, devoted to the Russian Revolution. Subsequent events brought him back to his Jewish identity and to the belief that only a Jewish state in Palestine could solve the Jewish Question. He became the pioneer of the electrification of Palestine under the British Mandate.

   In 1938, restaurant owner Fania Lewando published a Yiddish vegetarian cookbook in Poland. Nearly eight decades later in Brooklyn, Leah Koenig published Modern Jewish Cooking. Meanwhile, Jeffrey Yoskowitz co-founder of The Gefilteria, an Old World-inspired Jewish food company, is finishing up the forthcoming cookbook, The Gefilte Manifesto (2016). Despite spanning two continents and many generations, these three cookbooks have a surprising amount to say to one another. Join Koenig, Yoskowitz, Eve Jochnowitz (who recently translated, adapted, and annotated Lewando’s book), and moderator, Sarah Gordon, for a conversation about Jewish cooking, culture, and food ethics, then and now.

An Invitation to the Ball
KlezKanada will once again host a dance party on Thursday night. This year, our theme is “An Invitation to the Ball”. This Polish-Jewish Ballroom is open to all – so don your formal attire, however you define that, and be ready to fill up your dance card! Over the years and across countries, Jewish dancers adopted the trendy social dances of the day, including the Polka, the Mazurka, the Polonaise (a grand march), and waltzes such as the Pas D’Espan. We will feature a Grand March, traditional Jewish dances, and an array of beautiful classic couples dances. Get a head start by learning the dances throughout the week at our two repertoire classes (Shine On and The European/Jewish Ballroom).

With David Kaufman
From Despair to Defiance: The Warsaw Ghetto Uprising (2003) is the only feature documentary to tell the story of the most important rebellion in Nazi-occupied Europe, through the memories of five of the surviving veterans of the Jewish Fighting Organization in Warsaw. They recall the horror of life in the Ghetto, the despair of the community following the mass deportations of the summer of 1942, and the resolve of the surviving young people to give their remaining days some purpose. “All we wanted to do was to choose how to die,” says Simcha Rotem, the Jewish Fighting Organization courier who led the attempt to save the leaders of the rebellion who were trapped in a bunker at #18 Milla Street. Produced and directed by David Kaufman, who will present the film and answer questions afterward.

3:45-5:15  Contemporary Representations of Poland and Polish Jewish History:
Moral and Aesthetic Questions
RC Multipurpose Room
Moderated by Rokhl Kafrissen

By now we’re all familiar with the narrative of the return of Jewish life in Poland. The increasing interest of Poles in all things Jewish intersects with the many Jews outside Poland who have devoted themselves to studying, documenting, and making art from the rich history of Polish Jewish life. What is at stake in the representation of Jewish Poland? And what are the questions we must ask ourselves when doing this work? This panel will feature four of our KlezKanada faculty who all specialize in a different aspect of Polish/Jewish life. David Kaufman is a film maker and photographer who has documented, among other things, the Warsaw Ghetto and the synagogues of Poland. Ellie Shapiro is writing her dissertation on contemporary Jewish cultural initiatives in Poland. Agi Legutko is an IB Singer scholar, as well as being a native of Krakow who lectures on and leads Jewish tours of the city. Michael Steinlauf is a scholar of Jewish Polish history and director of the Holocaust and Genocide Program at Gratz College.

The Reaction to the Death of I.L. Peretz in the Jewish Cultural World
Although Peretz died in the terrible time of WWI, with the mass expulsion of Jews and pogroms, his death had a powerful impact on the Jewish world. 100,000 Jews participated in his funeral. Professor Orenstein will analyse the first literary responses to his death and the monument (the Oyel-Perets) that was erected over his grave at the tenth yortsayt

At The Crossroads: Planning for the Next 40 Years of Traditional Yiddish Culture Education and Continuity with Hankus Netsky and Rokhl Kafrissen

40 years after the first 'Yiddish revival' recordings, interest in traditional Eastern European Jewish culture continues to grow among Jews and non-Jews. It's no longer a novelty to hear klezmer music on NPR or a PBS fundraiser. This June, our own Michael Alpert joined Andy Statman, Beyle Schaechter-Gottesman, The Epstein Brothers, and Elaine Hoffman-Watts when he was named an NEA Heritage Fellow. Yet, after 40 years, Yiddish culture still struggles not just for funding, but legitimacy, within the Jewish mainstream.

In many ways the growth of the Yiddish world owes much to non-Jewish audiences and support. The Yiddish world is in a double dialogue, on the one hand with the mainstream Jewish world, and on the other, with the mainstream non-Jewish world, often with much more support and interest coming from the non-Jewish side. With many of our core institutions on shaky ground (or, as with KlezKamp, closing shop), how can we re-envision the Yiddish future to take advantage of its relationship with the mainstream Jewish, and wider, world? And what do we need to build, institutionally, to take advantage of the enthusiastic audiences who don't yet see themselves on the Yiddish side?

Join renowned musician, educator and community leader Hankus Netsky in conversation with author Rokhl Kafrissen for a probing conversation on the future of Yiddish cultural continuity.

Monish: Reading a Forgotten Yiddish Classic with Shane Baker

Perhaps Yitzkhok Leibush Peretz’s finest work, Monish had a great influence on other writers, including Bashevis. It was mandatory material for students in the CYSHO schools of interwar Poland; many of your European-born parents could probably recite portions of it from memory. Join Shane Baker for a close reading of the work in English and Yiddish, including a thorough examination of the traditional sources behind the plot.

Memories of the Yiddish Theatre
with Herschel Fox. Moderated by Joanne Borts

We will bring to life the great Jewish theatrical, musical, and artistic personalities who made Yiddish Theater and Jewish music so full of fire and unique flavor. Herschel is thrilled to share some of the onstage and backstage stories of Molly Picon, Shimon Dzigan, Jan Peerce, Sidor Belarsky, Freidele Oysher, Isaac Basheves Singer, Ben Bonus, Mina Bern, Mickey Katz, and others. He will bring to life again these wonderful and sometimes outrageous personalities, as he experienced them.

WEEK-LONG WORKSHOPS

All classes subject to change. Changes will be posted to the notice boards at KlezKanada.

LEVELS: Each period features classes for all levels. Please respect the levels listed in the title or description of each class. Faculty may recommend alternate classes to participants based on level. Note: All beginners in AM 1 should attend the Beginners’ Orchestra.

ATTENDANCE: We encourage you to make your workshop choices upon arrival at KlezKanada and stick to them throughout the week. Try your choices on the first day and, if necessary, transfer on Wednesday. After Wednesday, please do not change classes without permission from the teacher. Most classes build upon what is taught each day and it can be extremely disruptive to have students drop in and out of the class.

OBSERVING CLASSES: Many classes are open to observation. When observing classes, please enter quietly and do not interrupt the class while it is in session.

INDIVIDUAL COACHING: At-large coaching is available throughout the week, pending faculty schedules. To make an appointment, please speak to the individual faculty member. Please note that faculty may not be able to facilitate every request.

Why Exactly Would You Think You Can’t Write Good Songs? Well You Can! (And you don’t need to be able to play an instrument either, I promise.)

Geoff Berner

A lot of people have recorded and enjoyed playing Geoff Berner’s songs. Come and explore what makes a great song by examining Jewish classics for their lyrics, melody, and structure. Nurse and grow your own song from idea germination to singable living organism – you can choose to then share with others or not. It’s up to you! Common pitfalls of iffy songwriting will be enumerated for the purpose of dodging them. But no one will be allowed to be mean to you about your new song. Your new song will belong to you and no one will ever be able to take it away from you.

Beginner’s Orchestra

Faculty: Kinneret Sagee and Paul Morrisset

Join KlezKanada’s traditional Beginner’s Orchestra and enjoy the thrill of being part of an orchestra! Kinneret Sagee and Paul Morrisset will lead beginning instrumentalists in playing klezmer as a group.

Fidl Half-Speed

Deborah Strauss

Slow down! Ornaments, phrasing and sekund (rhythmic accompaniment) for less advanced string players, or more advanced players who want to dig deeper at a slower pace.

Advanced Fidl

Cookie Segelstein

This fast-paced class will cover techniques for ornamentation, rhythmic treatment of melody forms, chord playing and doynes. Tunes will be learned by ear with music provided by email at the end of class. Emphasis will be placed on skills rather than quantity of music.

Bass and Beyond

Jim Guttman

The low end of the klezmer band is where the power comes from, to make people dance and listen. Klezmer Conservatory Band bassist Jim Guttman takes all low end players and works on groove, melodies, style, improvisation, chords – everything.

Wicked Technique and Twisted Tunes for Plucked-Strings

Jeff Warschauer

Plucked-string instruments are fantastic for klezmer music! Part tsimbl, part accordion, part drum, a plucked-string instrument can fulfill any and every role. Again this year we will focus on quirky tunes with finger-twisting melodies and weird harmonic leaps. Open to all plucked-string players of any level, plus singers and other instrumentalists with the ability and desire to play softly. This ensemble will perform in the Student Concert.

Intermediate Woodwinds

Matt Darriau

We will work on general woodwind skills, breath, and ornamentation as well as repertoire and wind ensemble arranging.

Advanced Woodwinds

Christian Dawid

Working on performance, individual expression, timing, ornamentation, stylistics. Special topic this year: playing for dancing and micro-dynamics. Room for masterclass situations.

Trumpet and High Brass

Ben Holmes

This class will work on performance skills, phrasing, ornamentation, expression, timing. In short, this class will work on everything you need to enjoy, and make others enjoy, klezmer trumpet.

Low Brass

Rachel Lemisch

For all trombone, tuba, euphonium, baritone, bass trumpet and serpent players. Learn about the traditional roles for these instruments in klezmer music, work on melodic style and refine your klezmer brass skills.

Piano Class - Make it Your Own

Marilyn Lerner

This is an advanced piano class, adapting jazz and classical styles to klezmer piano. How do you begin to develop your own sound? We will look at some original recordings and try to understand what makes them swing. Participants are asked to bring in compositions and arrangements of klezmer tunes as well as recordings that have influenced them.
Workshops

Drums and Percussion
Daphna Rec Hall
Aaron Alexander
This class will offer intermediate and advanced students a chance to play, listen, talk, practice, and learn together. Topics of discussion and analysis may well include practical knowledge, pie-in-the-sky ideas, esoteric technical minutiae, repetitive drudgery, comping for dancers, solo construction, tension and release, or Julie Epstein's buzz rolls.

Traditional Klezmer Accordion in the Modern World
Media Room
Ilya Shneyveys
Accordion is a very diverse yet particular instrument. It can replace a whole band, but also has its limitations. We'll take a look at how to maximize the strengths and overcome the weaknesses of the accordion, both in the context of klezmer and in music in general. Drawing from the klezmer tradition, we'll apply these techniques to today's musical landscape.

Advanced Accordion
HSHQ
Uri Sharlin
Improve your bellow control, the separation of hands and fingers, as well as your posture while learning exotic, note-bending, bellow-shaking and different musical flavors and ornaments from Eastern Europe and the Balkans.

Tinsel Painting
RC Arts Room
Emily Socolov and Tine Kindermann
Tinsel Painting was a popular art form in the late 19th Century, a reverse glass painting technique where the negative space is blacked out and a glittering background radiates through the clear, tinted spaces. This was an inexpensive means of creating signs, setting off cherished documents (like photos, mizrachs or ketubahs) or producing decorative wall art and jewelry. We will experiment with transferring images onto glass or sturdy plastic sheets and creating unique framed objects. We'll also make smaller, wearable items from glass gems. Feel free to bring materials to collage.

Open Studio: Drop into the art studio all day, any day (except for AM1 on Tuesday).

Avia Moore
Balancing individual expression and community togetherness, traditional Yiddish dance is as beautiful as it is fun. Join Avia for a Yiddish dance class that will have you shining on the dance floor at night! A workshop for new dancers, experienced dancers, and even those that think they are not dancers. With plenty of room for variation, these are traditional dances that everyone can enjoy together. We will look at the fundamentals of Yiddish dance forms, from steps to style, learn plenty of repertoire, and think about the dances in the context of our modern lives. This is also great class for klezmer musicians – better understanding the dances is a step towards becoming a great dance band leader.

Small ensembles that play and sing are also encouraged to attend!
Basic Klezmer Repertoire
Zach Mayer

Just because you’re a beginner doesn’t mean you can’t play the best stuff! Open to any instrument, this course will teach you authentic style, demystify klezmer improvisation, and have you playing the hottest klezmer music faster than you can say eyns tsvey dray.

Play it by Ear
Christian Dowid

Lost without sheet music? Lost in a jam session? Many instrumentalists, especially those with classical training, believe that they cannot learn music by ear. You are so wrong! If you struggle with aural musicianship, but know your basic music theory (keys, scales, chords), this class will surprise you with simple strategies, making you ever happier.

Follow the Steps
Zilien Biret

Do you want to learn how to play for Yiddish dance, how to connect with the dancers and create a vibrant tants kapelye? Then this class is for you! We will focus on learning how to bring the music to life, how to read dancers’ gestures to find the right tempo, phrasing, melody interpretation. We will learn less known old traditional dance tunes as well as find out how to build a dance set, choose repertoire, and become a real Yiddish Dance musician!

Crash Course in Chords and Harmony for Klezmer
Jason Rosenblatt

What is the “four minor chord in the E freygish mode”? What to do if you’re in a group with three melody instruments? It’s time to cut to the chase and get down to business. In this class, you will learn the essentials of how klezmer theory works. Learn how to accompany and harmonize melodies, understand how chords work, find inner voices, counter-lines, etc., starting at a really basic level. A great class for singers who don’t know how to communicate with the instrumentalists, classical musicians who only read written music, or don’t know how to think about harmonies and chord notes, people who play by ear but don’t know the theory of what they are doing.... for most of us.

Advanced Harmony and Improvisation
Dan Blacksberg

Dan Blacksberg will lead an exploration of the nuances of accompaniment in klezmer, from trombone to the piano. Working with a preselected repertoire of tunes, we’ll explore a range of both pre- and post-revival klezmer styles and even think of how we can create our own new styles! We’ll cover artists/styles such as Belf, early American (Abe Schwartz, Kandel), Middle American (Tarras Trio, Howie Lees) and Modern American and European styles. Participants in this class should come with a decent knowledge of chords (up to 7th chords), and the ability to follow the class by ear, and having learned the repertoire. Please contact Dan Blacksberg dan.blacksberg@gmail.com with any questions and to get the tunes for the class.

Balkan Ensemble
Matt Darriau

Over the last few centuries, via Ottoman rule, shifting populations, geographic proximity and displacement, many Balkan melodies have been adapted by klezmer musicians and perhaps visa-versa. We will investigate various Balkan, Turkish and Greek repertoire and look at the differences and similarities in their performance practices with that of klezmer repertoire and technique. We will do some work with asymmetric (Balkan) rhythms, general rhythmic skill development and musical sensitivity. This ensemble will perform in the Student Concert.

World Fiddle Traditions
Lisa Gutkin, Lily Henley, Paul Morrisset, Jake Shulman-Ment, Cookie Segelstein, Deborah Strauss

In this unique forum, different teachers will teach different styles every day. Learn about Celtic, American, Scandinavian, Hungarian, Carpathian and North German musical traditions from Klezkanada’s far-travelled fiddle faculty. Hosted by Lily Henley.

Teenagers in Lvov
Zach Mayer

Do you want to revolutionize the Klez Kommunity? Do you want to be a part of the baddest thing since Josh Dolgin? In Teenagers in Lvov, you will finally get to combine and perform your two favourite genres of music: hip-hop and klezmer! All youthful musicians are welcome. Are you a klezzical violinist? No problem. A rapper? Arguably better! Someone who likes to eat? Too bad! We rehearse during lunch!
How to Lead Yiddish Dance – Afternoon Class
Avia Moore

Avia and Steve will share their years of experience leading Yiddish dance in a series of practical, participatory lessons in a safe, fun environment. We will share our techniques and tricks to getting people up and dancing and following along. The classes will extend over two periods daily. Anyone is welcome to join, but those wishing for a Certificate of Completion need to attend both sessions daily, as well as at least one technique class (Shine On or The European/Jewish Ballroom). Customizing Custom: Making Motion on the Dance Floor as Full-Bodied as the Music on the Bandstand
Jenny Romaine

We are a flavorful multi-generational diversely bodied community. This class will focus on how to translate the musical counter-lines & counter-rhythms of klezmer into dance movements that match the ways our bodies want to move in relation to tradition and getting everyone on the dance floor moving in ways that feel good. How can dancers move in complementary counterpoint to each other? We will work with movement derived from sources in Yiddish dance, minhag (custom) and group members best dance floor memories to create a counter-line of dancers who work with, around and against the main group of dancers, akin to how the trombone player dances between the melody and bass parts. Romaine will be joined by dancer/ movement scholars Hadar Ahuvia and Rosza Daniel Lang/Levitsky and instrumentalists Richie Barshay and Ben Holmes. This is a performance dance class where we make choreography. There will be costumes. We will meet in a chair accessible space. We will explore how to make moves that keep our dance floors hot, biz hundert yor tsamtsik. ALL AGES and LEVELS of physical mobility sought (chair users, elders encouraged). Children up to ten with an adult mentor, tweens, adolescents, adults, elders and beyond. Participants in the class are encouraged to attend Shine On, Avia Moore’s Yiddish dance repertoire class, AM2.

A Brokhe: Open Workshop of a New Yiddish-English Play
Rokhl Kafriessen and Shane Baker

Join Yiddish theater artist Shane Baker and playwright Rokhl Kafriessen for an intimate, character focused workshop of her new play, A Brokhe. The workshop will be led by Shane Baker, who brings extensive Yiddish theater experience, including translation (Yiddish Waiting for Godot) and performing (The Adventures of Hershele Ostropolyer, The Bespoke Overcoat). Workshop is open to those interested in acting as well as those interested in observing and giving feedback in the workshop process. We ask that those interested in an acting role commit to all four sessions.

Yidishe Lider New and Old
Lorin Sklamberg

Join the Klezmatics’ lead singer and YIVO Sound Archivist Lorin Sklamberg to explore gems from the immense vocal repertoire collected by Jewish national treasures Chana Mlotek, Ben Stonehill, and Canada’s own Ruth Rubin in tandem with contemporary works created by today’s great Yiddish songwriters. Material will be illustrated by current and vintage commercial and private recordings from the Max and Frieda Weinstein Archive of YIVO Sound Recordings.

How to Send Your Performance Across the Footlights into the Hearts of the Audience
Joanne Borts and Adrian Banner

Join Broadway veteran Joanne Borts and KlezDispensers Musical Director Adrian Banner in a 4-day crash course for advanced, semi-pros, and professional singers. Bring in your two favorite theatre songs (memorized, and with sheet music, please!) and be prepared to woodshed the music and work the lyrics moment-to-moment until you’re truly performance-ready! We’ll also pick up tips and tricks from each other. This ensemble will perform in the Student Concert.

Di Shereray (Yiddish Barbershop)
Josh Dolgin

Experience the spine-tingling thrill of singing Yiddish music in rich, glorious 4-part harmony. Working from Golden-Age American klezmer era arrangements from Oscar Julius, Avraham Saltes, and others, this workshop will look at nignunim and Yiddish folk songs arranged for mixed chorus. This ensemble will perform in the Student Concert.
Nigunim for Peace and Togetherness
Sruli Dresdner
From Sruli’s extensive repertoire of contemplative and lively Old World Khasidic melodies. This year, we will focus on traditional Khasidic and Yeshivish Hakofes nigunim. These are melodies that are sung on the yontev/holiday of Simkhes Toyre (or Simchat Torah) as well as all year. Mostly lively, but also contemplative, and always deep and powerful. Texts and transliterations will be provided. This is the perfect class if you would like to center your day with meditative communal singing and/or to bring back some very special musical pieces to your communities. Participants are encouraged to share their favorite nigunim as well. Although this is a vocal workshop, it is also recommended for instrumentalists. Class participants will perform and lead these nigunim at the Friday night Tish.

Composing and Adapting Your Own Synagogue Melodies: A Creative Approach to the Shabbes Liturgy
Cantor Jeff Warschauer
Back for a second year! A course for singers and instrumentalists, and for anyone interested in learning more about how Ashkenazic music works. This class is designed to help you create your own liturgical settings. We will learn the accepted nusach (musical modality) for various sections of the Shabbos services, and study prayer texts in detail, devoting close attention to meaning, correct accentuation and phrasing. We will also explore the emotional and spiritual character of each section, and look at existing settings. Working individually or in small groups, we will compose our own settings, or adapt new settings from existing tunes. Bring your creativity and an open mind, and be willing to devote time outside of class to your projects.

Fidl Kapelye
Jake Shulman-Ment and Cookie Segelstein
It’s fidl year at Klezkanada! Representing an astounding bowed-strings faculty, Cookie, Jake and guests will make this ensemble a cohesive group, responding to each other with non-verbal cues, furtive looks, winks, nods and gestures with the bows, to play a complete set of tunes from dreamy slow to dangerously fast. Intermediate to advanced suggested. All music to be learned by ear. This ensemble will perform in the Student Concert.

The Big Ear Thing
Dan Blacksberg
Come Join the Big Ear Thing! Here at Big Ears, we believe in two things, learning and arranging klezmer tunes by ear, and melting face with our awesome klezmer sound. Come prepared to delve deeply into the melodies, harmonies and rhythms of these tunes, which we will stretch, wrestle and warp to make our arrangements. All instruments are welcome to the group, though a moderate knowledge of harmony and a strong desire to bring it is highly recommended.

Tey-Tants Band
Pete Rushefsky and Amy Zakar
Lace up your boots and grab your instrument – it’s gig time! In this new ensemble for experienced players, we will work up a great set of dance melodies to play for Thursday’s pre-dinner Tey Tants! Music from the archives of Eastern European klezmer will be provided; readers and ear learners are welcome. Participants will gain experience in leading a dance set. The class will cover how to build a repertoire of danceable medleys, provide real-time cues on the bandstand for other band members, and bring forth your own distinctive instrumental voice. Together we’ll spice up your ability to accompany dance and, in the process, enrich an enjoyable and zesty KlezKanada tradition.

Pete’s American Dance Band
Pete Sokolow
The inimitable Dr. Klezmer Fats, our esteemed Pete Sokolow, shares his vast repertoire and repartee in this reading band dedicated to the great American Yiddish music tradition. Play the music of the greats - Tarras, Ellstein, Brandwein, Beckerman, and more.
While we are here studying and experiencing the amazing history and heritage that we have in klezmer, Jewish music, and culture, this ensemble is an opportunity to begin writing the future. We will explore some new compositional directions that have been taken in Jewish music by risk takers, boundary crashers, and adventurers like John Zorn, Frank London, Uri Caine, and Marc Ribot. This ensemble will try its hand at using some of the traditional themes and nuances of Jewish folk music and incorporating whatever new elements we can come up with, including but not limited to rock, jazz, metal, and the avant-garde. Join us as we run Yidl’s Fidl through a sonic blender! This ensemble will perform in the Student Concert.

Songs for a Revolution: The Music of the Jewish Labor Bund
Sarah Gordon
The Jewish Labor Bund was founded in Vilna in 1897 to organize working-class Jews. In the decades that followed, the Bund grew into a powerful political and cultural force in Lithuania, Poland and Russia. Bundists wrote, shared, and sung songs which reflected their hardships and struggles and outlined their hopes and ideals. In this class, we will learn some of these remarkable songs alongside the history of the Bund, exploring how culture can be revolutionary and how the legacy of the Bund continues today.

Dave Tarras Ensemble
_*Microphone* Radio*
Led by a member of the wildly popular Tarras Band itself, this ensemble will play music from the repertoire of The Godfather of klezmer. Tarras (1897-1989) created a new American sound for klezmer that changed the music from there on, influencing all who followed in his footsteps. He left a vast collection of music, a sample of which will be explored and performed. Sheet music provided! This ensemble will perform in the Student Concert.

Mandolin Orchestra (open to other plucked strings)
_Eric Stein_
After a year's hiatus, Eric Stein returns to KlezKanada to lead a plucked string ensemble in the great Jewish mandolin orchestra tradition. In addition to mandolins and guitars, the ensemble is also open to ukuleles, cellos, and basses. The group will perform original arrangements of klezmer and related music and study some rare and unique source material illuminating the history and role of mandolin family of instruments in Jewish musical life. This ensemble will perform in the Student Concert.

Brooklyn Brass Band
_Jordan Hirsch_
This year, we take the Khasidic Dance Band to the streets! We will be playing classic tunes from the Satmar, Belz, Modzitz, and Lubavitch Khasidic dynasties. But it’s time to turn it up a notch, so we will be doing this Brass Band style: Think Rebirth meets Rebbe. Open to all instruments, but be prepared to engage in a little Punk Polyphony! We will be using sheet music and learning by ear as well. This ensemble will perform in the Student Concert.
